

MONTHLY TALK

A free health talk for patients, families,
staff and community members of UHN

Mount Sinai Hospital-University Health Network Antimicrobial
Stewardship Program (ASP) and Patient and Family Library present:

A screening of the film: "Resistance"

(A documentary by UJI Films)

TOPICS:

This film will talk about:

- How antibiotics were developed and are currently being used in humans and agriculture
- What you need to know before and while taking antibiotics
- How antimicrobial resistance occurs
- Experts point of view and personal stories

There will be a question and answer period after this 72 minute film.

FACILITATOR:

Dr. Andrew Morris
Director, Antimicrobial Stewardship Program
Mount Sinai Hospital | University Health Network
Professor, Division of Infectious Diseases
Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto

DATE & TIME:

Friday September 29, 2017, 1:00 p.m. – 2:45 p.m.

LOCATION:

Toronto Western Hospital
Auditorium, 2nd floor, West Wing
399 Bathurst St. (just north of Dundas St. W.)

REGISTER:

Email evangeline.roldan@uhn.ca or call 416-603-6475

This talk will be presented in English. No interpretation will be arranged.

UHN is a scent-free organization. Please don't wear any scented products.

